

During the meeting on September 27, team Purple Cobras discussed the requirements for Milestone 1 and worked on them as a team.

The group decided on creating a web app that helps students find and connect with study buddies on campus. The group determined some of the required technologies for this app, such as NodeJS, SQL, and HTML/CSS.